ITALIAN SITUATION NOW EASIER

Italians Have Borne Brunt of Battle Entirely Alone
For Days

MAY USE NEW FORCES IN NORTH

Heavy Gun Duels Near Verdun—English 3 1/2 Miles From Jerusalem

Apparently the peril of the Italian troops guarding the Piave line and the hill country in northern Italy against the Teutonic allies is at an end. Large numbers of British and French reinforcements—infantry and artillery—arrived at last have arrived on the scene after days of anxious waiting in which the Italians have borne the brunt of terrific fighting on both fronts solely on their own shoulders and kept back the enemy from a further invasion of the Venetian plain.

Although faced everywhere by superior numbers of men and gun powder the Italians have valiantly defended every foot of ground in the hills and along the Piave and in the former region in recent days actually have taken the offensive against the invaders and pushed them back from strategic points of vantage they had gained under terrible sacrifices in lives. For eight days the reinforcements marched to the rescue, bringing along with them large numbers of guns and huge supply trains. All the troops are declared to be in fine fettle and eager to test their strength against the enemy.

May Be Used on the North Front.

Just where the British and French forces will be thrown into the fray has not been made known, but doubtless large numbers of them will be used to strengthen the Italian front on the north from Lake Garda eastward to the Piave where the Austro-Germans have been making their strongest efforts to pierce the Italian line.

At last accounts Byng's British troops before Cambrai were holding in their entirety the Bourlon positions west of Cambrai. Since their repulse of Sunday the Germans had failed to renew their counterattack. Only minor operations have taken place on any of the sectors of the wide front where Byng's men last week carried out their swift and spectacular operation which resulted in the smashing of the famous Hindenburg line.

Heavy Gun Duels Near Verdun.

Along the Chemin Des Dames and in the Verdun region violent artillery duels are in progress between the French and the Germans. In the latter sector the Germans several times essayed attacks with the purpose of recapturing ground taken from them Sunday, but met with repulse. This ground, which is situated to the north of famous hill 344, for the possession of which so many sanguinary battles have been fought, is in the process of consolidation by Gen. Petain's men.

Daily the operations of the British having for their purpose the investment of Jerusalem, are being pushed forward. Southwest and west of the city British cavalry have taken respectively Bittur station and Aïm Karim, six miles and three and a half miles from the city's gates. Just outside the city to the west and to the north strong contingents of Turks are gathered to oppose a further advance. To the northeast on the Mediterranean coast advanced British patrols have been forced to give ground before a Turkish attack.

HOLD SIX SUSPECTS FOR BOMBING

Police Have Part Confession in Milwaukee Case of 10 Killings.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 26.—Six suspects are held tonight in connection with the explosion of the bomb which killed ten persons Saturday night in the assembly room at police headquarters during an examination of the instrument which had been left at the Italian Evangelist church. "We have a part confession, which if it develops, may lead to the arrest of the persons who were instrumental in the bomb plot," said Captain of Detectives John T. Sullivan today.

Rev. August Guilianna, pastor of the church, arrived from Marquette this afternoon and went immediately to police headquarters, where he had a conference with Chief Jameson. "I have just read about it in the papers," said Mr. Guilianna. "They say I disappeared, but that is not so. I'm on the job."

Later he conferred with the federal authorities.

BAKER ORDERS SOLDIER GUARD FOR N. Y. PIERS

Military Patrol Will Be Extended and Federal Military Police Formed

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—Orders for placing military guards at the Chelsea and Southern Pacific piers in New York harbor went to the commander of the eastern department today from Secretary Baker. This is in line with the plan for using troops to enforce the alien enemy proclamation along the important water fronts.

The military patrol will be extended to other points on the New York water front as rapidly as the places to be guarded in this way are determined. Regulars probably will be used for the present until the proposed new federal police force of a semi-military character can be substituted. Brig. Gen. Carter, in charge of the army participation in the enforcement of the alien enemy law, explained today that the soldiers would be posted in front of the piers only and that police watchmen and other civilian guards would continue to guard the piers themselves. The troops will be instructed to keep enemy aliens or other persons without proper credentials from passing through their lines or coming within 100 yards of the entrance of the pier.

Large Signs of Warning.

New York, Nov. 26.—Large signs printed in German and in English, prohibiting enemy aliens from approaching within 100 yards of the water front, will be posted in every street leading to a pier on the East and North Rivers, United States Marshal McCarthy announced here tonight. The order goes into effect Thursday. It reads:

"Notice to Enemy Aliens—Enemy

aliens must not under any circumstances pass east or west under this line. Enemy aliens will be immediately arrested if they violate this rule. It is the duty of all good citizens to report any violations of this rule."

Dr. Finley Says Schools Should Not Harbor Insidious
Skulkers

Syracuse, Nov. 26.—Patriotism was the keynote of stirring addresses of the first war time meeting of the New York State Association of Teachers held here tonight. Dr. John H. Finley, Frank A. Vanderbilt of New York and Chancellor James R. Day stirred the delegates to enthusiasm.

Dr. Finley, discussing the duty of the schools in the world crisis, moved the thousands of hearers to applause when he declared:

"If a teacher cannot give that unquestioned support to the country which makes his own individual freedom in time of peace possible, his place is not in the school. I will not say where it is, but of all places in the world he should not be in the school, as a representative of his country."

"What a travesty it would be if below

WEAKENING THE PUNCH OF BEER

Food Administration Orders Alcoholic Contents Reduced to 3 Per Cent.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—Orders reducing the alcoholic contents of beer to 3 per cent will be issued soon by the food administration with the approval of president Wilson. At the same time the amount of grain used by brewers will be cut down approximately 30 per cent, although the volume of beer will not be decreased. In making this announcement tonight the food administration points out that since there is in the country a two or three years supply of whiskey it is undesirable at the present time to stop entirely the brewing of beer because of the possibility of driving the people to whiskey drinking.

MRS. DESAULLES TELLS HER TALE

Relates Childhood and Courtship, Marital Life and That "Horrible Night"

STORY ONE OF PATHOS

Yet At Times Witness Introduces Rich Humor and Smiles
Broadly At It

Mineola, Nov. 26.—From the witness stand in supreme court here today, Mrs. Bianca Desaulles told a story upon which may depend her conviction or acquittal of the charge of murdering her husband, John L. Desaulles, at his Long Island home, the night of August 3.

It was a tale in which pathos and humor were mingled. There were moments when the pale, Chilean heiress smiled broadly at a part of her own grim narration and when the spectators who crowded the court room laughed so loudly that it was necessary for Justice David S. Manning, who was presiding, to rap for order.

But the greater part of the story was so deeply pathetic that jurors and spectators were visibly affected.

Story One of Changing Scenes.

It was a story in which scenes were rapidly shifted. The first was a luxurious estate in Chile—Vina del Mar—the vineyard by the sea, where the defendant spent her childhood. Then followed a reference to the three years the young woman spent in a convent in England. There was the return to her Chilean home and her acquaintance with Desaulles, fresh from laurels won as a football star at Yale.

Then the witness told of her brief courtship and the wedding ceremony performed in Paris in 1911.

From this point, the story was one of domestic infelicity, of "indifferent neglect" and unfaithfulness on the part of the husband which eventually led to the divorce court. Two years of unhappiness for the defendant were described as a "horrible nightmare" in one of the several letters written by Mrs. Desaulles, as read to the court, and which interspersed her testimony. Next came the climax of the narration—Mrs. Desaulles' account of the tragedy at "The Box," her former husband's home near Westbury, L. I., the night she failed in her endeavor to secure possession of her son, and in a moment of mental irresponsibility, according to her claim, fired the revolver shot.

No Reference to Hypothecosis.

There was no reference throughout the five hour recital, to "hypothecosis," the thyroid condition which her attorneys say was partly responsible for her temporary mental derangement. Mrs. Desaulles story told, there remained to be examined several other witnesses on behalf of the defendant, whereupon the way will be cleared for a long battle of alienists and other medical specialists representing the prosecution and defense which is expected to be waged before the case finally goes to the jury.

With this in prospect lawyers connected with the trial tonight predicted it will continue well into next week.

Witness' Voice Almost Whisper.

Mrs. Desaulles whose color and languid demeanor reflected her three months of imprisonment told her story in a tone so low it was necessary for Justice Manning to admonish her several times to speak louder. Jurors leaned forward with hands cupped about their ears endeavoring to catch every word of the testimony. Persons in the back of the room listened intently.

Leading up to the date of the tragedy the witness told of efforts which she said were made by her

SENTENCE RINTELEN TO ATLANTA

Months for Passport Conspiracy.

New York, Nov. 26.—A prison sentence of one year and eight months in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta was imposed in the United States district court today on Franz Rintelen, German agent, upon his plea of guilty of conspiracy in connection with fraudulently obtaining a passport. He will begin serving his sentence upon the expiration of the term of one year in the New Jersey penitentiary to which he was committed last May, after being convicted with David Lamar on the charge of conspiracy to cause industrial troubles in munitions factories and on steamship lines.

Rintelen, while travelling under an assumed name, was removed from a neutral ship by British authorities and placed in a detention camp in England two years ago. After the declaration of war by the United States he was sent to this country to be tried on the passport conspiracy charge.

UNDER PRESSURE NEWS PRINT TRUST DISSOLVES

Controlling Manufacturers, However, Say They Are Doing So For Patriotism

New York, Nov. 26.—With the assent of the government, the Newsprint Manufacturers' association, which represents about 83 per cent of the print paper production of the United States and Canada, was dissolved here today as an unlawful combination in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

Under this decree, signed by United States Judge Mayer, and which the defendants' counsel said was accepted by the accused men because of patriotic motives and a desire not to embarrass the government engaged in war, evidence will be placed before the Federal Trade commission with a view to paper prices being fixed in this country by the commission. Pending the commission's decision, which under the decree may be reviewed by the federal circuit court of appeals here, the price of paper is fixed at 3 cents a pound. This contract, of which the United States attorney general is the trustee, is understood to be satisfactory to the American Newspaper Publishers' association, the members of which are included in the consumers of paper.

Under the decree the three cent price will prevail until April 1 in the case of the individual and corporate defendants and until January 1 in the case of others. The price finally fixed by the Federal Trade commission will be understood to be for the period of the war.

The defendants were accused of creating a "complete monopolistic arrangement" whereby prices were fixed, the country divided into geographical districts for trade purposes, new mills suppressed to avert competition and propaganda sent to newspaper publishers indicating increased manufacturing costs at a time when, according to the government, it was actually lower than it had been in previous months.

Counsel for the defendants asserted today that they had not consciously violated the spirit or the letter of the Sherman law. The association, the attorneys held, was organized as a measure of "self defense to meet aggressions" by the American Newspaper Publishers' association, which was described as being a "buyers' trust."

RED CROSS SEALS MAILED.

New York, Nov. 26.—A quarter of a million letters, each containing a dollars worth of Red Cross Christmas seals, are being mailed throughout the state explaining the seriousness of tuberculosis as a war problem and putting up to the people the responsibility of protecting United States soldiers and civilians from the ravages of this disease according to a statement issued by the State Charities Aid association here tonight.

MEN MAY NOT ACCEPT

Congress Will Have to Decide If Soldiers Can Lawfully
Retain Medals

(By the Associated Press.)
With the American Armies in France, Nov. 26.—The French war cross has been conferred upon 15 American officers and men who were cited with their company by the French general fighting with the sector in which the Americans were stationed at the time of the German raid on the nights of November 2 and 3. The men were decorated today and were informed that they must keep the medals in their possession but not wear them until Congress gives its authorization.

The ceremony was an impressive one. An American major general presented the decorations and citations, giving the regimental colonel those for the men who were killed. They will be sent to their next of kin.

The French general in referring to the action of this American company said:

"On the nights of November second and third this company, which was in the line for the first time, met an extremely violent bombardment, despite which it seized arms and offered such stubborn resistance that the enemy though numerically superior, was obliged to retire."

The general specially cited in the order of the day Corporal James D. Cressham and Privates Merle D. Hay and Thomas S. Enright, who died bravely in hand to hand fighting with the enemy who had penetrated the first line.

The others cited were Lieutenant William M. McLaughlin, Lieutenant R. O. Patterson, Lieutenant E. F. Erickson, John S. Arrowood, Corporals David M. Knowles and Homer Givens and Privates Charles Alaska, William B. Thomas, George Hurd, Royce Wade, Robert Winkler and John J. Jarvis.

A recent offer by the British admiralty to decorate certain officers of two American destroyers for their services in combating German submarines was declined, according to the announcement of Secretary Daniels, because the laws of this country prevent soldiers from receiving decorations from foreign governments.

VOLUNTEERS TO AID DRAFT BOARD

Crowder Suggests that Defense Councils Assist in Classifying Men.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—County and city councils of defense were urged today by Provost Marshal General Crowder to assist the local exemption board in the task of classifying the nearly 10,000,000 men subject to the selective draft.

"There is in every city—in every hamlet almost—a council of defense," said General Crowder. "These organizations were built to help the nation in its emergency. This is their opportunity. Everywhere there are men who need help in the preparation of their questionnaires. The legal advisory board will be the central advisory committee. They will need men to go into the homes and factories. Meetings should be organized, posters should be made, lists should be prepared, all looking to the raising of our army."

This Is for the Cold Storage Variety; How to Tell Frozen Fowl.

New York, Nov. 26.—Price lists of cold storage turkeys approved by federal, state and city food administrators, will be distributed by the police tomorrow to shops dealing in fowl. Dr. Henry Moskowitz, city commissioner of markets, announced here tonight, in an order fixing the price of cold storage turkey.

Texas plain will sell at retail up to 28 cents a pound. Sells fancy up to 30 cents wholesale and 35 cents retail. Northern plain up to 28 cents wholesale and 33 cents retail. The retail prices are based on a cash and carry basis.

Storage experts have advised housewives that the eyes of turkeys disappear after a period in storage but are present in fresh turkeys and if the breast bone of the turkey is broken, it generally indicates that it is a storage bird, because dealers pound the breast to give it the appearance of tenderness.

RUSSIAN AND BERLIN IN WIRELESS TOUCH

Apparently About Armistice; Rumor Current New Socialist Government Forming

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—Information reaching the state department today, was that the authorities in Petrograd were in wireless communication with Berlin. The character of the communications passing between the two capitals was unknown, but it was assumed they had to do with the Bolshevik offer of an armistice.

Ambassador Francis' report to the state department included information reaching him that the northern armies in Russia were facing a serious food shortage, giving rise to the fear that the disorders in the country might further be complicated by widespread looting. He also repeated a rumor current in Petrograd that a new government of socialistic character was being formed.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Nov. 26.—If Russia enters into separate peace negotiations the ministers of the allied powers at Petrograd will demand their passports, according to a dispatch from Haparanda.

Petrograd, Russia, Nov. 26.—The Maximalist commission have proclaimed the abolition of class titles, distinctions and privileges. All persons henceforth are "citizens of the Russian republic." ## HALF GOTHAM'S MILK SUPPLIED BY LEAGUE

President Cooper of Dairymen Also Says It Controls Over 650,000 Cows

New York, Nov. 26.—The Dairyman's league supplies apparently one-half of the milk furnished New York city and controls herds comprising more than 650,000 cows. It. D. Cooper, president of the organization, testified here today before the hearing of the milk commission named by Federal Food Administrator Hoover to investigate the price and supply of milk in New York city. Mr. Cooper was the principal witness today. Others who testified were John J. Mitchell, state food administrator, and James E. Thompson, chief of the division of milk inspection of the department of health.

Asked if he thought an average price for milk the year round could be fixed, Mr. Cooper declared that the cost of production differed greatly in winter and in summer and that he was unable to suggest how prices could be equalized. John Mitchell said that the government would control foodstuffs and fix the prices so that this might solve the question of equalization of prices. James E. Thompson submitted figures showing the amount of milk received in the city. The hearing will continue tomorrow.

TWO SECRETARIES WANT KNITTING

Daniels and Baker Appeal to Women to Keep on Working for Red Cross.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—Another appeal to the women of the country to keep on knitting or in other ways making comforts for soldiers and sailors was made today by Secretaries Daniels and Baker through the Red Cross, where the following statement was issued by the war council:

"Secretaries Baker and Secretary Daniels wish the people of the country to know that under no circumstances do they want to discourage our good women from knitting or otherwise voluntarily providing through the Red Cross committee for our sailors and soldiers."

"Or the contrary, both Secretaries Baker and Secretary Daniels wish to clearly understand that they greatly appreciate all the voluntary efforts that are being made through the Red Cross to bring comfort to our fighting men, and thank the women of our country for this patriotic work. They request the newspapers to give the widest publicity to this expression."

RETURN HOME AFOOT

Caught in German Trap, They Stampede Horses to Draw Attention From Selves

(By the Associated Press.)

British Headquarters in France, Sunday, Nov. 25.—The British cavalry have had many thrilling experiences since the battle began in the Cambrai sector last Tuesday and opened the way for them into the great territory over which they have roamed almost at will like cavaliers of old, seeking combats with those who would escape their gaze.

Stories of their gallant charge with drawn sabres against enemy batteries and into strong infantry positions, have been innumerable. But perhaps none of them had a more exciting time than a squadron of Canadian horsemen who took their way in a northeasterly direction from Masnières, after the eventful smashing of the Hindenburg line.

They swept proudly out of Masnières on their chargers with their sabres making merry music against their trappings.

They returned afoot and thereby hangs a narrative of bravery and strategy which is worth recording.

Help Tanks Out of Tight Place.

For a considerable distance the horsemen cantered along over the rolling grass lands without encountering any enemy. East of Rumilly, however, they came upon several British tanks which had almost run into a German battery position and were being fired at point blank by the great guns.

The monitors were in a tight place and needed assistance badly. They got it. The cavalry came pounding up in columns of four and their leader, sizing up the situation, sent them swerving in on either side of the battery. Then they charged in straight among the gun crews, their sabres flashing. It was over in a moment and the last of the enemy lay trampled upon. This incident finished, the cavalry trotted off in search of other adventure. Not far away was a sunken road which concealed considerable enemy forces armed with machine guns. An advance guard discovered this trap and dashing back gave the word to the commander. The latter snapped out a command and the squadron, most of whom were still unaware of the presence of the sunken road, divided into two bodies, one of which deployed to the right toward a break in the wall of the road, while the other drew their sabres and charged straight ahead.

With Flying Leap and Sabres Drawn,

The Germans, not knowing that British cavalry was in operation in that section, still remained in the big ditch and the Canadians reached the brink of the miniature precipice without seeing the enemy. They saw them then, in numbers, and realized for the first time that they were headed for a drop of several feet to the level of the road.

Not a horseman hesitated. They took the flying leap straight down among the surprised Germans and began their work of death. Half a hundred of the enemy lay dead when the remainder took to their heels and fled toward Rumilly.

The cavalry commander then was out of touch with the remainder of the advancing forces and decided to stay in the sunken road for a time until he could get orders.

Accordingly he sent back a courier to carry information as to the location of the squadron. It developed quickly that another force of German machine gunners was stationed in a commanding position near by. These opened a grilling fire on the cavalry and succeeded in killing several horses within a short time.

A Clever Ruse That Felled the Hun.

It became apparent that the men and the rest of the horses must suffer the same fate if they remained where they were. The commander knew a would be suicide to ride out into the open and he seized upon an ingenious plan to outwit the Germans. The horses were gathered together and stampeded with their empty saddles in the direction of Cambrai. The ruse worked, for the Germans peering through the mist, thought the horsemen were escaping.

The machine guns came into action against the galloping horses and the troopers meantime made good their escape. They started back and lost their way and at one time were in the outskirts of Rumilly. This may have given rise to a report that became current that the British had captured the village.

The Canadians continued their journey to what they thought was the British line. As they proceeded they were challenged by a German officer with nine men. With the troopers was a small fellow who spoke German fluently. He went forth on his mission and told the officer a cock and bull story and held his attention until the Canadians dashed forward and shot down the enemy.

Kramer and Goulet Will Ride in Six-Day Race

Frank Kramer has finally consented to start in the six-day bike race in Madison Square Garden, the week of December 2 to 8. The perennial champion gave Promoter William H. Wellman five days of worry before he signed for the grueling last night. Wellman promptly offered him Oscar Egg for a partner and Kramer accepted.

Two other formidable teams were signed up last night. Alfred Goulet agreed to Freddy Hill as a partner, while Eddie Root, four-time winner of the New York race, was teamed up with Marcel Dupuy, the French champion, who, with Egg, won last year's classic.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The New York Market.

New York, Nov. 26. — The stock market was in a receptive mood today on a moderate volume of operations. Events over the week-end were of such varied character as to further confuse speculative sentiment during the afternoon, but the list hardened perceptibly later, war issues manifesting marked strength.

Rails were hesitant and uncertain features, the proposed pooling of the eastern roads as a war measure evidently giving rise to uneasiness. Western issues and Pacific were no less influenced, however, than coalers, and the trunk lines.

Reaction of the morning ranged from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 points in General Electric, General Motors and Pullman, the latter falling to 123 1/2, its lowest quotation in many years. Other equipments and specialties lost 1 to 2 points during the same period, but rallied smartly with oils, tobaccos and sundry war shares in the final hour.

United States Steel featured the more active dealings of the afternoon, advancing from 96 1/2 to 99 1/2 within a fraction of its best of the month. Profit taking reduced this advantage by half a point, steel closing at a net gain of 1 1/2 points. Other leaders also yielded part of the extreme advances.

Bonds were decidedly firmer, although international showed some irregularity. Liberty issues were active, the 4's at 98.35 to 98.02, and the 5 1/2's at 98.50 to 99.03.

U. S. bonds, old issues, were unchanged on call.

DISABLED BY BOMB U-BOAT SURRENDERS

Terror Stricken Crew, Hands in Air, Calls "Kamerade" to American Tars

(By the Associated Press).

Base of the American Flotilla in British Waters, Nov. 26.—It is now permissible to give the details of the capture by Americans of the entire crew of the U-boat sunk by depth charges. The explosives had disabled the U-boat and forced it down, bumping along the bottom of the sea and striking terror in the hearts of the crew when the commander, in order to lighten her, emptied the tanks. To the great relief of the crew the U-boat responded and rose to the surface with such a rush that some of the Germans were thrown about and injured.

Hands in Air and Calling "Kamerade!" The U-boat appeared on the surface within several hundred feet of an American destroyer. The submarine's hatch flew open and the Germans scrambled out of the conning tower coatless and shoeless and ready to swim for it. They lined up along the narrow deck with hands in the air, shouting "Kamerade!"

The U-boat remained stationary and the destroyer moved close up and heaved a line which the Germans made fast. This was no sooner done than it became apparent that the crew had succeeded in opening the sea cocks and the submarine began to settle, at first slowly, and then more rapidly. As she did so the Germans leaped into the water and swam toward the destroyer. Some of the American blue jackets jumped into the sea to rescue the injured.

Howser Parry; U-Boat Sinks.

As the last German was lifted aboard the destroyer the howser attached to the U-boat parted under the strain and the U-boat disappeared.

All the Germans were given steaming hot coffee and dry clothing and otherwise made comfortable for the return to the base. But one of their number, a machinist, had suffered greatly from shock and exposure and died on the way. He was buried with full military honors from the deck of the destroyer, the American commander officiating at what was the first funeral service so far held in this war on an American destroyer.

When the destroyer reached her base the prisoners were almost wholly clad in American blue jacket outfits. They appeared especially fond of the American clothes which were the first they had ever worn.

READY TO DRAW MEANS JURORS

First Day of Trial Progresses No Farther Than Drawing Special Venue.

Concord, N. C., Nov. 26.—The trial of Gaston B. Means in Cabarrus county court here today, progressed no farther than the drawing of a special venire of 150 men to supplement the regular panel of 12. Court officials hoped to select from these the 12 jurors who will decide whether the defendant shot and killed Mrs. Maude S. King, wealthy Chicago widow, at Blackwelder Springs, near here, on the night of August 29.

The great number of gentlemen summoned indicated the difficulty expected in filling the jury box among citizens from Means' home county. The court adjourned at noon.

Under the North Carolina law requiring that the names be drawn by a child unable to read, a little boy in blue rompers picked out the names to be read.

former husband whom she had then divorced to alleviate the affections of her son. This was done, she declared, through a nurse whom DeSaulles had engaged to care for the boy, and who, she testified, told him to "act bad" when he returned to her custody from "The Box," the father's home.

A letter bearing DeSaulles' signature and purporting to show that the boy, John L. DeSaulles Jr., was in the custody of his mother by terms of an agreement by the parents when the shooting occurred was introduced by Attorney Uthchart. Introduction of this letter immediately preceded Mrs. DeSaulles' story of the tragedy.

Scene at DeSaulles' Home.

"When DeSaulles failed in his promise to return Jack to me early that evening," said the witness, "I determined to go to 'The Box' and get him."

Mrs. DeSaulles then told what she claimed she could remember of the five mile automobile trip from her home to that of her former husband.

"When I entered the house I saw baby coming down the stairs with Carolyn (Mrs. Legener) she continued, 'I wanted to take him and run. Then Julius (DeSaulles' valet) arrived. I think I asked him 'where is DeSaulles?' When he appeared I said, 'I think it is pretty mean of you keeping baby away from me.' I don't know what he said. I said 'I have come to take him home with me.' He looked at me. He said, 'You can't have him—you never can have him.'"

"I think I was stunned then," continued the witness after a long pause, "I had a frightful pain in my head." There was another silence—fully a minute in duration. Then the defendant added "I still seemed to hear those words."

"That Is All I Remember."

When Mrs. DeSaulles failed to say anything more during an interval in which every eye was fixed on the little woman in the witness stand and every ear was strained in an effort to hear the story.

"Is that all you have to say," asked the judge, "That is all I can remember," came the scarcely audible reply. "When did your senses return," asked the judge.

"I don't know, I didn't know where I was but I know now I must have been in jail. That is all I remember." There was a seemingly interminable space between the woman's words and her tone lowered until the concluding "That is all I remember," was almost whispered.

The witness' story told, Justice Manning immediately closed the court until tomorrow when it is expected Mrs. DeSaulles' mother, will be placed on the stand.

X-Ray on Screen.

A French scientist has provided a means of obtaining stereoscopic X-ray images that enable a surgeon to see a bullet in its true position, when it is lodged in a human body, by a comparatively simple arrangement. When seen in an image in relief on a screen and being able to recognize its position in relation to bones, it is possible for a surgeon to estimate accurately the distance between his instruments and the projectile, or whatever the object happens to be. The method is described in the Popular Mechanics Magazine.

RHEUMATISM

Physician Believes a Genuine Remedy for the Disease Has Been Found.

Rheuma, the wonderful rheumatism remedy sold by druggists everywhere, gives quicker and more lasting relief than other remedies costing many times as much.

Rheuma passes the deadly poisonous secretions into the bowels and kidneys, from which they are quickly thrown off in a natural, healthy way.

Read what a reputable physician says about Rheuma: "I have made a most careful investigation of the formula employed in the manufacture of Rheuma, and I heartily recommend it as a remedy for all forms of rheumatism. I find Rheuma far in advance of the methods generally employed in the treatment of rheumatism, and altogether different in composition from the remedies usually prescribed."—Dr. Lyons.

DEATH OF GEORGE BOOTH.

Esteemed Resident of Sidney for a Decade Expires Saturday.

Sidney, Nov. 26. — Saturday morning, at his home on Cartwright avenue, occurred the death of George W. Booth, for the past ten years a most highly esteemed resident of Sidney. His death followed a brief illness which had confined him to his bed since Wednesday, but for several years he has not enjoyed good health. He was nearly 71 years of age. He was a native of Franklin and nearly all his life has been spent in Delaware county. At various times he had conducted hotels in Walton, Hancock, Downs'ville, East Branch and Sidney Center. He was postmaster of the latter village during the second Cleveland administration and also filled a government position in Washington for several years. Shortly after he was 17 years of age he enlisted in Company A, 12th Heavy Artillery, and served with credit during the balance of the Civil War. Nearly 50 years ago he was married to Miss Prudence Hall of East Delhi, whose death occurred about 18 years ago. A few years ago he was married to Mrs. Gertrude VanOrsdale of Sidney Center who with one daughter, Miss Emma Booth, survives. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Fannie Haskins of Franklin, the last of a family of 11 children. He was a member of Bradford Post, G. A. R., of this village, and of Hancock Masonic lodge. His funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Members of Bradford Post conducted a brief service at his late home, after which the remains were taken to Sidney Center for burial and where a Masonic service was conducted by members of the Hancock lodge. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Mr. Shafter of the Baptist church.

For Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Here in America there is much suffering from catarrh and head noises. American people would do well to consider the method employed by the English to combat this insidious disease. Everyone knows how damp the English climate is, and how dampness affects the ear, leading to catarrh. In England they treat catarrhal deafness and head noises by means of saline solution and use an internal remedy for it that is really very efficacious. Sufferers who could scarcely hear large had their hearing restored by this English treatment to such an extent that the tickle in the ear was entirely gone and the night noises away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be easily prepared at home for a few cents and is made as follows:

I did so and my backache soon disappeared and I felt like a different woman, and now have a healthy little baby girl and do all my house work. I will always praise Lydia E. Both the French and British are hammering at the Germans on the western front. On their part the Germans have taken the offensive in the St. Quentin (4) and Neuve Chapelle (2) sectors, raiding the allied trenches. Field Marshal Haig made a considerable advance in the Ypres (1) area and continued his smashing drive at Cambrai (2). At Craonne (3) the French have undertaken a sustained offensive and are reporting satisfactory progress.

terro-concrete as the makers call it.
Instead of steel, the ships are of solid concrete, with reinforcements of steel wire imbedded therein. Several of these ships of small size have been made and floated, and it looks now as if for certain classes of work concrete

it will be a battle in which the former are to win they must not scatter their ammunition.

A reason why the Italian lines were so easily broken at the beginning of the recent drive has been given out at Albany. Briefly it is that certain regiments of the Austrians fraternized with the Italians and it was agreed that the way to end the war was for both to lay down their arms and refuse to fight. Then the Austrians were secretly withdrawn and picked Prussian guards were substituted. As a result when the Italians advanced without shooting they were met by a withering fire from the enemy, and died in disorder. These tactics are legitimate from the standpoint of the Huns, just as was the advance with hands up and calling "Kamerad," but with the rear lines following with bayonets fixed and ready for the charge, but it is at least convincing as to what treatment Russians, Italians or any of the allies may expect if they have commerce with "the Greeks bearing gifts."

vide for the disfranchisement of all "evaders." There is no place on the roll of citizenship of a republic for any man who seeks to escape the duties that go with citizenship. And when congress gets around to the enactment of disfranchisement legislation it must not overlook the con-scienceless Hun-Americans who are doing their best to promote lawlessness and disloyalty in this land as their Boishiviki brethren have done in Russia—in the interest of Germany.—

Tending That Way.

We expect to see conscription of labor made a national policy during the war. If there are men who will not put their strength and earnestness into this great struggle, and who refuse to at least make for themselves the support they now draw from others, they must be made to work.
—[Utica Observer.

Samuel Gompers.

To the American people the re-election of Samuel Gompers by the Federation of Labor is a deserved honor to a man conspicuously and usefully serving the nation. To union men also it is that; and something more.
It is a mark of confidence continued and increased in one who for years has valiantly, at times bitterly, fought the battles of organized labor, and shared in many victories.—[New York World.

The Craze for Sugar.

It is positively amusing to witness the efforts that are put forth by some housewives to secure sugar, even beyond present needs. Many seem to act as if the commodity was an essential and that unless they could secure an ample supply, the family would absolutely suffer severe privations.
The fact is that America hardly feels yet the pinch of the war and the mere fact that some households are compelled to reduce the consumption of sugar is probably an actual benefit to every member of the household. We have in the past been prodigal of sugar, many people absolutely wasting it by the quantities placed in a cup of coffee or tea, it often being found undissolved at the bottom of the cup when the meal was over. People are rushing hither and yon and to stores they never entered before in the craze to secure sugar and more sugar. The thing to be done is to reduce the consumption to the minimum and the situation will probably soon be remedied. In fact, is the men at the front and the suffering nations deserve and should receive what they need and those of us still in the land of plenty, comparatively speaking, should be content with what is left. Some of us have a rude awakening, if the war continues for some time as it seems likely now to do.

The Hospital Donation.

There was a generous interest taken in the annual donation for the Fox Memorial hospital, which was held yesterday afternoon at the Municipal building. There were liberal contributions of all sorts, a principal feature being the canned goods, of which there were perhaps more than ever before. There were groceries, also, and other articles considerable in amount, and there was a good truck-load altogether at 5 o'clock.

It is suggested that if any have overlooked the hospital donation, their contributions can be left at the Brown Hardware store, where they will be cared for and later delivered at the hospital.

Two Kelloggs to Succeed Sewell.

A dispatch of yesterday from Albany states that it is Governor Whit-man's intention to appoint Supreme Court Justice Henry T. Kellogg of Plattsburg as associate justice of the appellate division, Third department, to succeed Justice Albert H. Sewell of Watson, who will retire at the end of December, having reached the age limit. If this dispatch is correct Justice Sewell will be succeeded by two men named Kellogg—as Justice in the Sixth Judicial district by Hon. A. L.
Kellogg of this city, and as appellate justice by Hon. J. T. Kellogg as above.

TO BAKE BREAD IN BERLIN

Ambition of First New York Field Bakery Men—Arranging Thanksgiving Dinner.

The following news letter from Camp Wadsworth appearing in the Albany Knickerbocker Press will interest many Star readers:
Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S.
C., Nov. 24.—With Thanksgiving just a few days off, the Twenty-seventh division is beginning to worry more about the Thanksgiving day activities, with its incidental dinner, than about war.
And now that the thousands of turkeys which will go to make up part of the dinner of more than 27,000 hungry soldiers are coming into camp in great numbers, the most active persons about camp are members of the First New York bakery, Captain Jesse L.
Millard commanding.

On other days, a field bakery is just a field bakery. But on Thanksgiving day, a field bakery becomes a field cookery and roasting; for to the first field bakery, which is composed of men from the Capital District, for the greatest part, has been assigned the work of preparing and roasting the turkeys.

Captain Millard used to be a hotel keeper in Oneonta, before he organized a field bakery four years ago, and he knows what a real Thanksgiving day turkey should taste like. Under his able guidance, the Capital District boys are going to feed the rest of the division delicious turkey.

The unit, the first one organized in the United States, has five section shacks with three ovens set up in front of each shack. Each of these ovens, when used for baking has a capacity of 200 pounds at one run, and ten runs can be turned out in a day.

The ovens are of sheet iron, lined with asbestos, with a brick firebox underneath, and stand about four feet above the ground. Back of each trio of ovens are the mixing shacks in which the dough is mixed and kneaded.
The arrangements are such that the baking can be done with convenience and dispatch.

All of the Albany boys are quite satisfied with their places as bakers, for an army man, being an always hungry man, usually howlows to the sources of his food supply.

When the time comes for the Twenty-seventh division to ferry its way across the big brink, the First Field bakery will probably be one of the most important adjuncts to the expedition. The boys are all ready to go across, and everybody in the outfit has the same ambition, and that ambition is to bake bread in Berlin.

Commissioned as Lieutenant.

The Pittsburgh (Pa.) Dispatch of November 21, has the following relative to a young man well known in Oneonta:

Robb S. Mackie, aged 22, a son of Robb Mackie, 117 North Linden avenue, who has been at Fort Niagara in an officers' reserve training camp for three months, has just been commissioned a provisional second lieutenant in the Regular army. He will leave there at once for active duty.

Mackie was a student at Hamilton college, Clinton, N. Y., until last spring, when he went to the Harvard training camp at Cambridge, Mass.
He remained there for three months, at that time putting in his application for a commission. Then he went to Fort Niagara.

His father said his son was to have arrived last night before leaving for duty at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., but that a telegram later changed all plans. Mackie may reach his home today, but where he will go after that is a subject unknown to him.

Home for Thanksgiving.

Practically all the conscripts at Camp Devens will be given furloughs for Thanksgiving. The leave will extend until Friday noon so the soldiers may eat their turkey dinners at home.
Only a handful of men will be left in camp. These will consist of rookies who lack equipment and those needed to guard the camp. All the men who have been disciplined will be forced to stay and do guard duty.
Arrangements for special trains to carry the men are now being made.—

East End Athletic Club.

In efforts to develop the boys and girls of the city along strong lines, the East End Athletic club has been formed by individuals who have become interested in the boys of that section, and Dr. Dann has given the High school gymnasium for their use Monday evenings of each week. Last evening organization was effected with the following officers: President, Revere Still; vice president, Wesley Oldes; secretary, Ted Barlow. As soon as there are funds in sight to aid the work a treasurer will be chosen. Boys in the East End are eligible to membership and it is hoped to do much for their physical and moral upbuilding.

Cobleskill, Middleburg, Oneonta, Walton, Sidney, Mohawk, Utica, New

—There was current in Oneonta spy. The Star does not care to dignify the report by a query to those in that those who repeat such a rumor are doing a patriotic citizen an injustice and should refrain from spread-

MORE BUSINESS FOR D. & H.

Endoubted Result Should Roads Pool Operations, Says Gutelius.

Frederick P. Gutelius, vice president and general manager of the Delaware and Hudson company, is in Washington to confer with managing vice presidents of eastern railroads about plans of the railroad war board to have lines in the east operated as one system, under government direction.

Plans of the war board for pooling all the resources of the lines east of the Mississippi river and north of the Potomac river, comprising 50 per cent of the total business, all under the control of a committee of the vice presidents, may necessitate Mr. Gutelius' presence in Washington for a long period, perhaps for the duration of the war.

The Delaware and Hudson company is one of the few railroads in the United States, it was pointed out by Mr.
Gutelius, that is without congestion on its lines and without embargoes on the movement of freight.

It is very likely that the plans of the war board for utilizing each eastern road to its fullest capacity, thus relieving some roads of the tremendous burden under which they are operating with difficulty, would mean the routing of a great quantity of additional freight over the Delaware and Hudson system.

"It is a question of jumping in and helping the other fellows," Mr. Gutelius said. "It probably means that a tremendous amount of traffic will be diverted over our lines."

Under plans of the war board each railroad will be used to its fullest capacity, but the kind of business it will get, high class or low class freight, as well as passenger traffic, will not be a question of competition, but of distribution by authority in Washington.
The roads will remain under private ownership and control, but the government will direct utilization of every mile of track and every unit of equipment and every part of transportation to maximum capacity.

Meetings Today.

Scouts, will be held in the armory at

NEED MORE KNITTED GOODS

WOMEN OF LOCAL ORGANIZATION URGED TO SPEED UP ON MAK-ING ARTICLES.

Present Demand on Red Cross from Camps and Warships Greater Than Supply—Distress Among Men. If Women Were to Shackle Production—$41 Added to General Fund.

So great is the present demand upon the Red Cross for knitted articles for men in cantonments and aboard American warships that the Oneonta chapter, as well as all other chapters in the state, has been asked by Ethan Allen, manager of the Atlantic division to speed up work on sweaters, wrist-lets, mufflers, helmets, and socks.

A report of the Bureau of Military Relief of the division which accompanied the appeal shows that in three days requests for 408,000 knitted articles were received from cantonments, forts, and embarkation camps in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut.
From three camps in the district requests came for 300,000 knitted articles. Another wanted 108,000.

With practically every requisition for sweaters and other knitted articles, it is said, comes the request that the garments be delivered at the camps before Christmas. So just as fast as these articles can be obtained they are being forwarded to Red Cross warehouses at the camps and distributed to the men under army regulations, which require that they be accounted for on inspection days the same as equipment provided by the war department.

The out put of the volunteer Red Cross workers no longer keeps pace with the need for knitted garments, and the American Red Cross, in order to supply soldiers and sailors quickly has had to purchase sweaters in the market. In this way the national headquarters bought 550,000 sweaters, 60,000 of which were allotted to the Atlantic division. But already this supply has been exhausted.

The knitted garments the Red Cross provides are distributed among men in the service of Uncle Sam without cost to them. This applies just as well to the articles purchased as to those made by volunteers.

From October 25 to November 20
the report of the military relief department shows 38,902 knitted sets, each containing a sweater, muffler or helmet, wristlets, and socks, were sent out to camps and warships. In a period of six weeks prior to that time 57,517 sweaters, 50,835 helmets and mufflers, 40,775 pairs of wristlets, and 62,321 pairs of socks were supplied, making a total since September 10 of 359,016 knitted articles.

In a statement to the chairman of the local chapter, Albert E. Tobey, Mr. Allen said in part:

"The knitting of articles for our fighting men is very important and very necessary. The Red Cross cannot overemphasize the importance of it.
In view of the present demand it is advisable that chapters do everything possible to stimulate interest in knitting. Let the women who are knitting for the Red Cross know that their work were to stop the Red Cross would be hard put to it to prevent widespread suffering and distress this winter."

A total of $11 was added to the general fund of the local Red Cross yesterday from the following: A Friend, $25; Miss Frances Fritts, $2; A. Angelello, $2; Mrs. Fred VanWile, $5, a Friend, $1; Mrs. Lester Couse, $1; Mrs. L. C. Gurney, $1; G. L. Pratt, $1; Miss Caswell, $1; and Mrs. Mary Blakely, $2.

Two large donations were sent in yesterday from branches of the Oneonta chapter. Otego delivered two sweaters, three pairs of socks, three pairs of wristlets, one muffler. Of these the muffler, two pairs of wrist-lets and a sweater were on Oneonta's quota. They also sent five abdominal bandages, five "T" bandages and 30 scullies.

Unadilla sent in 28 sweaters, 27 mufflers, 35 pairs of wristlets, two pairs of wrist warmers, 11 bed shirts, 24 pairs of pajamas, five nightgowns, 11 pairs of bed socks, seven hospital bags, two pillow cases, 16 wa. cloths, 37 handkerchiefs, 29 napkins, six comfort pillows, and a package of old linen.

With 40 women working yesterday afternoon and evening, 687 small compresses, 100 gauze strips, 110 gauze sponges, and two three-yard gauze rolls were made.

Display Service Flags.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Silliman of 2
Potter avenue are displaying a service flag in honor of their son, Dr. G. A.
Silliman, who is at present stationed in Bellevue hospital, New York.

A service flag with two stars is flying from the home of Mrs. William Crowley, 53 Main street, in honor of her son, First Class Private William T. Crowley of Company M, 30th Infantry, Camp Green, Charlotte, N. C., and son-in-law, Corporal W. L. Genter, Bat. 10th Regiment Field Artillery, Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C.
S. A. Disbrow of 60 Clinton street is flying a service flag in honor of his son, Sanford A. Disbrow, who is stationed with the First Field Bakery at

Where do Our Grain and Coal Go?

Are you worrying where you are going to get your winter's coal? Listen! Assistant State Fuel Administrator Leach of Ohio says: The coal used annually in the manufacture of beer in this country would furnish fuel for 726 round trips of the Lusitania. If she were afloat, and the transport 27-355,000 tons of supplies to the allies.
Mr. Hoover says that the brewers waste, besides thousands of tons of sugar annually, enough grain to make six million pound loaves of bread a day.
Shall democracy lose this world war that the German brewer may not suffer loss? adv. 11

Y. M. C. A. WAR FUND CAMPAIGN.

$456.50 Raised Yesterday and Much Interest Manifested by Citizens.

The Y. M. C. A. war fund campaign, which was formally launched in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at the mass meeting, is going forward with increasing interest.

While yesterday was largely devoted to preliminaries incident to perfecting the details of the work of the various teams and getting the machinery in running order there was some progress made.

Four of the six teams performed good work in soliciting subscriptions as the table indicates:

The members of the teams will assemble at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this morning at 9 o'clock and after brief instructions the men will go forward to "work for the soldiers at the front."

The following are the reports of the special committee and team captains:

1. Lynn Breese, Capt. . .	$ 38.50
2. Geo. L. Winans, Capt. . .	103.00
3. Clifford Morris, Capt. . .	30.00
4. Fred Van Wile, Capt. . .	10.00
5. L. H. VanWoert, Capt. No report
6. W. S. Polley, Capt. . .	No report

Team Totals . . . . .	$181.50
Special Committee . . . . .	275.00

Total for the day . . . $456.50

It will be noted by the above report that the sum of $275 is credited to a special committee which yesterday consisted of Hon. Charles Smith, Irving Rowe and Mayor A. E. Ceperley. It is confidently expected that Mr. Smith will have another good report ready for announcement at the meeting of workers to be held at the Y. M. C. A. building this evening.

The Ladies' auxiliary will serve a supper in the association building this evening at 6.15 o'clock and every captain and team worked will be urged to attend. This campaign is out to win, and it is predicted that the organization will make success possible.

With increased enthusiasm and continuous determination on the part of the entire campaign organization there seems to be no doubt that the goal set will be easily reached.

CITIES TO UNITE IN OPPOSITION.

Conference Called at Albany Today to Organize Opposition to New Rates.

Mayor Ceperley and City Attorney Becker are to attend a conference at the City hall in Albany today, commencing at 10.30 o'clock, of the mayors, corporation counsels and city attorneys called by W. P. Capes, secretary of the Mayor's conference of the state, to consider plans for uniting in opposition to the proposal to increase rates for gas and electricity, which has already been proposed in some 12 cities of the state and which, according to Mr. Capes, is part of a general plan of the lighting companies to secure increased revenues. According to Mr. Capes, the companies are all contemplating imposing a service charge, and he advocates that the cities of the state organize systematically to oppose the increases proposed.

The proposal is to unite all the cities which have been notified of an increase in rates either for gas or electricity in one united body and perfect plans that will assist each city in opposing the grant asked. It is contended that with an organization effected it will be a simpler matter for each city to make a vigorous opposition to the change and that the evidence and arguments used by one can in this manner be made available for all.

While the situation in this city does not preclude a compromise being reached, it is thought advisable that the city should be in touch with the situation in other cities, where the question is being raised and that the information to be secured at the conference may assist in securing a favorable adjustment of the rates here.

SHOULD HAVE PACKED HOUSES.

Cutter Stock Company Well Balanced and Popular Priced Organization.

The Cutter Stock company opened their week's engagement at the Oneonta theatre last night, presenting "The World and a Woman," a semi-rural comedy drama for which they have a very good cast, and to say the company pleased is putting it mildly, as it is a well balanced popular priced organization and should do capacity business throughout the engagement.

Specialties were introduced between acts, the feature of which is Luella Blaisdell in her posing and singing novelty, "Visions La Flame," an act that has played 43 theatres in New York with 22 return dates to its credit, including the Winter Garden. After witnessing this artistic offering one can well see why Miss Blaisdell has been so successful, as she has a beautiful form and a well placed soprano voice which she uses to excellent advantage in four numbers during the end of the act.

Ruth Leighton and Herbert H. Power sound little trouble in reaching their audience with their specialties and should prove big favorites.

The offering for the matinee and evening performances today is "The Divorce Question," a play that was produced by Rowland and Clifford and had a run at McVicker's theatre in Chicago with a very high salaried cast. To avoid detracting from the play the vaudeville today will be run before the show.

"The Path of Folly" is announced for Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Now at Camp Shelby, Miss.

Lynn S. Miller son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Miller of this city until recently engaged in newspaper work at Indianapolis Ind., is now a member of the Machine Gun company of the One Hundred Fifty-first Infantry and is stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss. The camp is located on sandy soil, writes Mr. Miller to an Oneonta friend with pine, about the only trees. We are quartered in tents, he adds, which, however have wooden floors and five-foot side walls electric lights and wood stoves. The food is of good quality, well cooked and plentiful. The schedule calls for drills from 7:15 to 12 each morning except Saturday and Sunday and from 1 to 4:45 p. m. except Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. The weekly inspection comes Saturday morning. The drills are less monotonous now that the company is digging machine gun emplacements, landing ranges, learning target designation and map sketching and reading. Close order drill has been mastered and we are learning something about real warfare so that we can help in the big job of licking the Hun. Of course, we do not know when we will go across. Most of the boys are anxious to see France and the trenches.
